> Perkins Points Out Confession Leaders Have Made of Their Sins of Past

Special to The Gazette.

NEW YORK, Dec. 21.-George W. Perkins, Progressive and former banket, in a statement just issued, declares, the culamity howling of members of the Republican national compilities which met in Washington last week indicates that they wish business conditions to grow worse, in the hope that the tide will turn against the Democratic party, and a Republican congress will be elected next fall.

The proposition is one of the most monstrous and brazen that has ever Been presented to American voters. said Mr. Perkins.

Mr. Perkins comments extensively upon the meeting of the national committee and discussed political developments which preceded it.

Calls It Confession.

The great big fact that stands out, in bold relief in connection with the meeting of the Robiblican national committee in Washington last week, he says, 'is that it formally and dediberately confined its sine, that if there was anywhere in the United States a lingering doubt as to who broke up the Republican party the action of these gentlemen in Washingten must d'apel any such doubt Whatever else the action amounts

- T. R. AND THE G. O. P.

CONVENTION reform was not the only thing considered by the Republican National Committee in Washington last week. The unreconstructed reactionaries who constitute the Old Guard talked of the campaign of 1916 and their prospective candidate and platform. And the more they talked the more fully they agreed that Roosevelt must be the man and the Proareasive contract with the people must be the platfora.

Surf is the gossip from Washington, Follo sing the committee meeting. It is not pawelnased, it is marely a continuation of Minds in which has been rife in high cirand Patrose, of course, would rather con-The to be defeated interminably than acph the Colonel. But after all they are of 4-mineters, and all of the other standthat it's are villing to fell at the Coloand a marin' in captive's chains if only the miny made thatly to the pic counter. the less bear it bear year dyed to the folio drappi like Theorevell Say Selly: Hall \ Language year ago, and THE WHITE BETT WILLIAM medicine, he rest a sou to su-! Let & May JAR V. com Str. No. 30 . No. Alexander with any without and tale the Repubtest said, is for loomed to abolite and Laring defeat. He knows that Roos-velt The Void take the nomb-flon, as he is the Void the Progressive and Republican parities letted bird and And Analwho knows that if Roostvelt takes the Bem ittlot at all it will be only on his own turnes and his own platform; that is, it Must be progressive all the way through Mahomet will not go to the mountain, I t the mountain which in this case is the Republican party will go to Mahomet with 2450 and alacrity.

All of which opens up a wide field for speculation, with so many diverse pasibilities that conclusions of any sort may be formed. First of all, where does the Colonel stand? Fortunately, the answer is easy; he stands just where he has stood for the last eighteen months. He is an uncompromising Progressive. He said so just before his departure for South America. "Next spring." he declared, "I shall return to devote myself with whatever strength I have to working with you for the success of the Progressive party and for the great principles for which it stands. . . . I would continue the fight even if I stood alone." So there is no getting around the perfectly obvious fact that the Republicans will have to go to Roosevelt it they want him; he won't go to them.

And what of the Democrats? Plainly, it would be their first business to prevent such a nomination if possible, for it would mean their certain defeat. President Wilson, in his recent message, advocated a Federal presidential primary law, but if one is passed in time to be effective in 1916 it will make certain the nomination of Roosevelt by sweeping majorities in every state In the Union.

Will the Democratic Congress, permit such a law to get on the statute books? Will President Wilson, on sober reflection, press his recommendation further? The President has shown many indications lately of being an extremely clever politician: We venture the guess that he will show another one by dropping his advocacy of a Federal presidential primary law.

30,000 IDLE IN LOS ANGELES

FOR the last ten years people who know conditions in Southern California have been wondering just when the hubble would burst. As to the certainty that it would burst eventually there never has been any doubt; the only question has been when, But the inevitable has been long delayed. Every year the fide of speculation has risen higher. Fictitious values which seemingly should have been exploded over night have somehow managed to maintain an appearance of permanence. People who bought lesert land on the cutskirts of too ingels, the worth on the wall of the cutskirts of too ingels, the worths of the wall for $10 an acre consider a themastices wonderfully lucky when they sold it for $100. But the new owner divided it into lots and sold it for $1,000, and the process of creating fate, wealth has continued in the same way until some of that land has sold for more dollars per front foot than lt once brought per acre.

Undoubtedly there are many people in Los Angeles who hyphotized themselves into an honest conviction that this sort of thing could go on forever, but most of them knew better. The majority have been content to make all the money possible while the boom lasted, meanwhile watching for the first sign of collapse in order that they might "get out from under" while there was yet time. And now, at last, the collapse appears to be imminent, but unhappily the way of escape is closed. There are too many sellers and not enough buyers.

Recently we have printed articles from Los Angeles papers and letters from former Colorado Springs people, now resident there, all telling the same story of shrinking values, dull business, vacant houses in short, the story of a bursted bubble. The Los Angeles Chamber of Commerce publishes warnings to clerks, bookkeepers, mechanics, professional men and small store keepers to stay away. Only "capitalists" are wanted, said capitalists being people who have money that they don't know how to take care of. And now comes news of a demand on the city to provide public employalent for its thirty thousand idle people. This is told in an Associated Fress dispatch, as follows:

LOS ANGETES, Cal. Ter. 18. Means to pro-vide public a sufe, wit for 30,000 'v and won-on vid to be out of a s. in this city will be the service of the state of the stated Robinson sold he uno that Tinker had not left Cides that he did not attach much tance to the shortstop's fallure. here to meet nim. President Robinson said, would complete with Tinker.

If you are asked, as frequently hap cus in these degenerate days, by a Payer to whomeyou are giving strokes whether you mind not playing stymies, a plan we have found effective h to ask him how nieny strokes he propeses to allow off his handlesp if stymies are barred, says a London newspaper. He will probably ask what you mean, when you can point out to him that, as the better player you are less likely to fay you self a Stymle than he is, and more likely to nevotiate one if it occurs, and that as the handicap has been tramed on the "all in" basis, not to play stymics is to his advantage.

"I would venture to give it as my eninion that no match has ever being lost entirely by the stymic rule. True you did not manage to screw round he opponent's ball from a range of six feet at the eighteenth hole, but what, my good friend, about the twofoot putt you missed ut the second, when there was no excuse and a fast field? We had better keep our old toe, the atymie, for if we kill him we shall rob ourselves of many a nice looking excuse.

The above excellent observation was ecalled to me pary the other day by 2

FEWER MEDICAL SCHOOLS

There are 14 fewer medical schools the United States than there were year ago: 1,200 fewer persons studied iedicine in 1913 then in 1912; and there was a decrease of 560 in the number of medical graduates, according to figures compiled at the United States Bureau of Education.

The raduction in the number of medical schools is part of a steady movement for improved medical education that has been going on for the past or Pears. The American Medical s _3ristion, the various State medical societies, and other agencies, have aroured public opinion to such an extent that 79 medical colleges have either mersed with other institutions of ceased to exist, and the standard medical training has been related considerably. Of the 101 medical achoois now listed at the Bureau, 52 are requiring one or applicant for a license to practice medcollege, after a four-years high school ourse, before even beginning medical training. A similar requirement covering one year of college work will soon be enforced by the State boards Lie . of Connecticut, Kansas, Utan, Vermont, Pennsylvania, and California. An interesting feature of the statisties is the part played by women. Als though the total number of medical atudents has decreased the number of women studying medleine has incree rd. In 1912 there were 18,461 modical students, of whom 712 were woment; in 1913 there were 17,238 students, comen graduated this year, however, as compared with 142 in 1912.

There may be sensational and disagreeable incidents soon if Mme. Poincare, wife of the French president. persists in her avowed intention of receiving equal honors with the wives of the great monarchs of Europe. So far she never has been officially invited to accompany her husband on visits to the capitals of other countries. She was thus snubbed when her husband was the guest of King George in London and when he was entertained by Alfonso in Madrid. It should he said, however, that she is not singled out on account of herself for especial slights. The monarchical receipts from Masonn lodge. Reward, countries queens have taken this atl'titude for many years. In fact, it started when the Empress Eugenie meddled troublesomely in politics, Since then the wife of the French president has been more or less point. edly requested to keep in the hearground. While Mme Poincare was an Italian

Vaudeville actress when Poincare fell in love with her and hecame her attorney in obtaining a divorce from her first husband, the irreproachable wives of Fallieres, Felix Carnot, Faure and Loubet were subjected to like indignities from foreign royalty. Mme. Poincare has been accepted by léaders of French royalist society, including the Duchess of Roban.

To be a "really and truly" Christmas dinner, there must be plum pudding or fruit cake. They're hard to make and the canned article somehow lacks the liome flavor. The best plan is to buy our genuine home-made puddings and cakes, which we know are pure, delicious and rich with the highest quality of ingredlents.

You'll save lots of work, worry and trouble, and will find real satisfaction in serving our plum pudding and cake.

PARK LAKE COVERED WITH HAPPY SKATING I HADNES

The ande Take Advantage of Good toe and how to Crowded All Day: Gelder Weather Pramised

The days of boyhood were brought back vividly to many a grownup yesterday and attempts to do the "outer "grapevine" and the "dutch roll" as they did years ago will occasion many an ache and pain today. Colorado Springs was out en masse at the lower lake in Monument Valley park yesterday. From early morn until past midnight, the skuters darted more or less gracefully upon the smooth ice made so by the careful tattention of the park commission. The skate reigned supreme. Old or new, rusty or shiny, dull or sharp, it didn't matter; skates of every conceivable kind were used. Dark attics and forgotten recesses gave forth their. contents. Those who could not obtain any skates went to the lake and enviously watched the others enjoy the

The park commission is flooding the ice daily. Two large are lights have been installed so that nightfall will not hinder the sport. Large forces of men are employed every day (when they can find room to work) in preparing the ice. Scrapers are used to remove the thin coating of shaved ice or enow to be found after each day's skuting, half an inch of water is applied, and nature does the rest.

That being the case, nature seems inclined on doing her share, for Colorado Springs experienced the first zero temperature yesterday morning. The mercury stood at 6 degrees above at at a local hospital, will be held at 10 s. a. m. and dropped suddenly to the o'clock this morning from the Beyle neutral peak shortly after. Then it climbed studily and showed is de-Braw at 2 o'clock in the afternoon. Little or no wind was recorded at the Colorado college weather bureau. . . The school children will regime one their foad hopes this week. Nothing to do but wate and eat; and for them The Pikes Peak Transfer & Ster ge the Chatings holiday sesson should be ide-) limity of mow, planty of what; and Tonta on his way.
